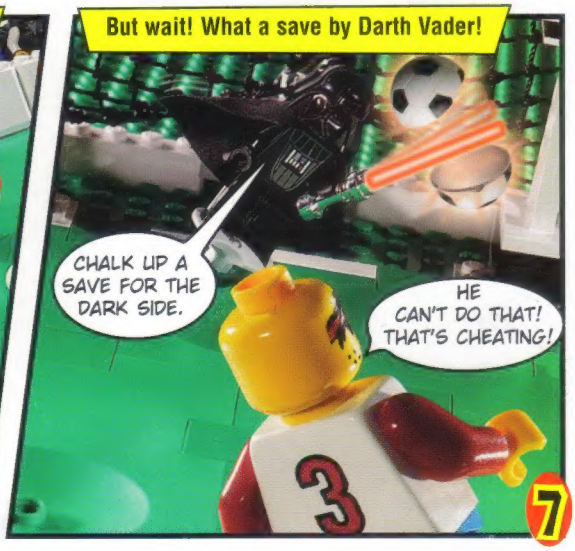
IT'S ABOUT TIME WE WIN AT SOMETHING!
EVERYBODY UP AND DO THE WAVE... OR ELSE!

The all-stars kick things into gear. There's a pass to the forward.

He puts the ball on goal. It looks good!



But wait! What a save by Darth Vader!
CHALK UP A SAVE FOR THE DARK SIDE.
HE CAN'T DO THAT! THAT'S CHEATING!

Looks like the all-stars will be awarded the goal. Now that all foreign objects have been taken away, let's see what happens in the second half.

GOAL IS GOOD FOR THE ALL-STARS!

An all-star is down! Oww, he's hurting! They're bringing on the cart.

YOU'RE SUPPOSED TO TACKLE THE BALL!

He looks okay, but he's going in for x-rays. The fans didn't like that tackle by Sam Sinister.

It's getting ugly in the stands, folks. The all-stars bring in their super sub, the LEGO Maniac to try and break this tie.

YOU WANT A PIECE OF ME?

YEAH! JUST WAIT TILL NEXT ISSUE, YOU HOOLIGAN!

The Maniac jukes a defender and dribbles toward the net.

OKAY, VADER. IT'S SHOWDOWN TIME.

What trick does Darth Vader have up his sleeve? With time running out, the Maniac shoots...

BRING IT ON, MANIAC!

I'M BRINGING IT, VADER. TRY AND STOP IT!

He scores! The all-stars win! The all-stars win! The all-stars win!

7190 MILLENNIUM FALCON

Have fun flying the Millennium Falcon! Han Solo's famous ship may not look like much, but it is actually one of the fastest ships in the galaxy. Captain Solo has made many special modifications to the Falcon, and only a few pilots have the skill to fly it. The Millennium Falcon is faster than any Imperial ship and aids the Rebels in their battle against the Empire. The Falcon helps destroy two Death Stars, rescues Luke from Cloud City, and carries its crew all over the galaxy!

FUN FACTS:

- The extra-large sensor dish can alert Han Solo to Imperial ships before they have a chance to detect him.
- Chewbacca is a champion at dejarik but almost loses to R2-D2 in Star Wars: A New Hope.
- Before meeting Luke, Han smuggled spice for Jabba the Hutt.
- The hyperdrive helped the Falcon make its record Kessel Run in less than 12 parsecs.
- Chewbacca, Han's 200-year-old Wookiee copilot, is from the planet Kashyyyk.

Han Solo tries to fix the hyperdrive.

Leia wonders why this "bucket of bolts" won't jump to lightspeed.

Chewbacca plays R2-D2 in a game of dejarik.

Luke fires the quad laser cannon while escaping from the Death Star.

Member Review – 7190 Millennium Falcon

Jeff McLain, age 10 of North Carolina

"What I really like about the Millennium Falcon is its size. It's really huge. And it looks nearly exactly like the Millennium Falcon in the movies. There are lots of fun ways to play with the model. Sometimes I redo parts of the movies, like when the Millennium Falcon weaves between the asteroids. I also make up my own adventures. They land on Tatooine, slide out the escape pods, battle Imperial troops, and then race back to the ship! It's also fun to play with because the top comes off. It's just as fun to play inside the ship as when you fly it. There are lots of tools that the droids can use to fix any damage to the ship. I love the escape pod – it's the coolest. It just slides out of the ship and flies off!"
